Day 3 Survivor Island / Proboscis Monkey & Fireflies River Cruise Day Trip

Meals : Lunch, Dinner

Depart to Kuala Penyu jetty (about 1.5 hours' drive). Arrive Kuala Penyu Jetty, hop on a 25-minute boat ride to Pulau Tiga - Survivor Island. Visit some slithering at the Snake Island and thereafter go for a dip and snorkel along the house reef. Step up your Instagram game and snap some eye catching shots when making a pit stop at the sandy beach of Sand Spit Island! Take a short trek to the mud volcano for some therapeutic skin pampering. Mud and therapy in the same sentence, that's how unique the experience. Freshen up and pack up, and depart from Island back to jetty.

Proceed for River Cruise, passing local villages, fruit stalls, and small towns. Some local hi-tea favorites wait upon arrival at the jetty, before you get those binoculars on stand-by and ready for your safari river cruise. Your tour guide will be there to point out any exciting wildlife sightings and share interesting facts. Keep your eyes peeled for the elusive long-nosed proboscis monkey, long-tailed macaques, and birds such as Kingfishers, darters, and eagles. You will be able to differentiate the female and male proboscis monkeys by their behavior. Enjoy a sumptuous dinner by the river lodge, As darkness sets in, board the boat again to witness and be amazed by nature's Christmas lighting, the fireflies! Depending on weather conditions, you might even spot nocturnal animals like the flying fox and night bats. Return to your hotel in Kota Kinabalu.
